

The painting that Richmond is referring to in his article is now hanging in our atrium. Unfortunately, you cannot experience the beauty of his artwork in this newsletter, but please come by Lutheran Towers to view his painting and enjoy our wonderful community. The atrium is used throughout the year by many of the residents, whether they are visiting with each other or waiting for their transportation. As you can see from the picture, three residents are having a great time in the atrium even in January. From left to right, Ms. Freddie Seacrease, Mr. Eddie Canady, and Ms. Dorothy Billingsley.

“Heaven’s Full Moon”
